Short Description

Mirth meets murder in the world's daftest whodunnit. CSI: Crime Scene Improvisation is an utterly unique murder mystery comedy that's different every show. A rip-roaring crime comedy entirely made up on the spot to solve a surreal murder chosen by the audience. Who? What? How? The choice is yours. The problem is theirs!

Detailed Description

No one knows who the killer is; not even the cast!

Following a sellout run at both The Brighton and Camden Fringe Festivals, comedy team The Chandeliers bring CSI: Crime Scene Improvisation to the Laughing Horse @ Cabaret Voltaire, creating a 100% brand new who-dunnit every show to solve an outlandish murder invented by the audience.

Someone's kicked the bucket. But who, what and how? The choice is yours.

Help the CSI identify the victim and what caused their grizzly death. Then grab your detective hats and prepare to laugh as you meet the suspects, ask ANY questions you like in a line up and ultimately choose who's off to the clanger in the dramatic climax of this fully improvised and utterly mirthful murder mystery
