

LOVEHARD: TALES FROM THE ELSEWHERE

Award winning comedic double-act LoveHard are coming back to the Edinburgh Fringe with their compellingly-titled, award-winning, word-filled, totally-hyphenated show 'Tales From The Elsewhere'.

"The sort of show that makes you excited about the Fringe again." ★★★★★

- Broadway Baby

Welcome to Hopeville. Just your average sleepy Mid-West American town of white picket fences, backs slapped slightly too hard by dubious farmhands, and where everyone knows everyone's secrets. Population: 23, 804. And rapidly dwindling.

When three young whippersnappers stumble across a box of musty cassette tapes, leading them to the deadly secret at the centre of the town's admittedly openly suspicious Abandoned Laboratory, and piece together the truth behind a devastating series of happenings in the town's murky murks, they are left asking: what is the cause of the disappearances? Why does everyone slap each others' backs quite so hard? And just what is the Elsewhere? Will they find out? Yes. Obviously.
