Ask Scarlett

Debuting at this year's Edinburgh Festival Fringe is the absurd musical comedy of song, dance and debauchery, Ask Scarlett. Agony aunt Scarlett Lashes will untangle the bizarre, the crazy, the most ludicrous predicaments – no issue is too big or small.

Ask Scarlett is a one woman musical comedy in which Scarlett tells funny and absurd stories of everyday problems. A satire of self-help gurus, Scarlett's advice is wacky and a little twisted at times, but she always has the best intentions at heart. The audience are welcome to suggest solutions, participate in a makeover, and decide the fate of Scarlett's letter writers. Featuring original songs, video, dancing and multiple costumes changes, Ask Scarlett is a fast-paced musical that invites the audience to be part of the show.

Becoming an agony aunt was a natural progression for Scarlett, providing the perfect outlet for her to share her uniquely bizarre perspective on the world, dishing out life lessons through the medium of song.

Jess Haugh, writer and performer of Scarlett Lashes, said:

"Scarlett is brash, she is fun, she is weird and she isn't afraid of breaking down boundaries. Scarlett is a liberating character who doesn't care that her type of crazy does not fit in the box"

Jess Haugh has been developing the character of Scarlett Lashes for the last eight years, entertaining audiences across New Zealand. She has composed all the songs for the show, using her nerdy audio engineering skills to produce all the music. Jess recently wrote and performed in a musical comedy show at the Auckland fringe, The Jenny Taylor show

*"How to put into words the insanity that is Scarlett Lashes, and I write that with a grin on my face knowing that never in my 9 years of music have I witnessed ANYTHING like Scarlett Lashes. Scarlett Lashes is about GIRL POWER, strength, unity and really not giving a F**K!" Music.net.nz
