

If N-Dubz were Funny... at Edinburgh Fringe Festival 2018

Stand-up comedians Alex Theo, Livs Hunter & Mamoun Elagab present

Funny Dubz

3 exciting new comedians perform their individual sets - you won't find a show with more diverse sets on this year in a combination of BAME and LGBTQ+ acts.

Mamoun Elagab - young, deadpan relating honest tales from his childhood; a light, yet in-depth insight into young black British communities.

Livs Hunter - true Scot, true ginger, LGBTQ+, Edinburgh born-and-bred comic. A gay woman with enormous personality defects resembling an advert for Irn Bru.

Alex Theo - talks about all his insecurities, there are many! An honest LGBTQ+ comic who is fun, energetic, handsome and bloody funny.

King Gong winner 2018

BBC New Comedian Award Nominee 2018

'Really interesting trio of styles. This is one show I would actually go and see'

Kyle Wallace, Promoter

Venue: Laughing Horse @ The Place (Venue 532)

Tickets: FREE, non-ticketed

Dates: 2-26 Aug 2018

Time: 21:15 (55 min)

Press reservations: funnydubzcomedy@gmail.com

Website: www.funnydubz.wordpress.com